

Please note that this is an early agenda based on what I know at the present time about updated institute materials being developed by the College Board. More information will be provided on the first day of the institute. If you have questions, please email me at kwood@murrayschools.org

Day 1

Planning Your Course

Lesson 13: Planning Your Course [Note: This will be presented before any other topic is addressed and will be reinforced constantly throughout the institute.]

Understanding the Course

Lesson 1: Historical Thinking Skills and the AP U.S. History course

Lesson 2: Developing Student Understanding

Lesson 3: Understanding the Structure of the Curriculum Framework

Historical Thinking Skills

Lesson 4: Analyzing Evidence: Content and Sourcing

Day 2

Historical Thinking Skills [continued]

Lesson 5: Interpretation

Lesson 6: Making Connections

Lesson 7: Chronological Reasoning

Day 3

Lesson 8: Creating and Supporting a Historical Argument

Teaching the AP U.S. History Course

Lesson 9: Sequencing the AP U.S. History Course

Lesson 10: Selecting Resources to Support Teaching AP U.S. History

Day 4

Lesson 11: Strategies for Teaching AP U.S. History

Lesson 12: Assessing Student Understanding