

Pacific AP July 9-12, 2019

AP European History
Consultant: Carol Pixton

Tuesday, July 9

Morning Session

Welcome and Introductions

Course basics: Scope of Course; Information on exam and Reading; AP Audit and AP Central

*Introduction to NEW AP Resources and Processes that the College Board is launching in August, 2019. There will be required online sign-ups for all teachers and students.

Groups: AP European Teachers Schoology Group; AP European History Teachers Facebook Page

OVERVIEW of the 2017 amended AP Euro Redesign: Themes, Key Concepts and Learning Objectives

Format of the exam and basics on scoring

Textbooks and supplementary readers for the course

Other resources: Publications, journals, books, internet sites for primary sources

Sources for Redesigned questions

Primary source documents: the building blocks of the historian's craft and critical to teaching the

Redesign. Group work with documents

Best methods for building archives of documents, lesson plans, assignment calendars and identifying new resources.

Sharing information on Google Drive and signing up for Schoology.

Planning your syllabus:

Make teams based on textbook used to pool ideas for Audit curriculum, if applicable, and syllabi and assignment calendars. Groups begin to plan and create documents specific to their textbook.

Afternoon Session

GRADING SESSION I

Techniques for teaching the Redesigned Multiple Choice questions

Short Answer Questions from 2019 AP Exam

Themes and enrichment materials for Fourteenth to Sixteenth Centuries

Period 1 1450-1648

Ex: Renaissance humanism lesson with Petrarch's letter to posterity

Brueghel images: How art reveals social history

Powerpoint: The History of Poverty through Art

Teaching the Reformation

Time permitting: Video clips from Henry V and A Man for all Seasons

Wednesday, July 10

Morning Session

Themes and enrichment materials for Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries

Period 2 1648-1815

Ex: Thirty Years' War lesson with handout.

Special Focus lessons with secondary and primary source documents:

- 1) Louis XIV and Absolutism – taxation and administration
- 2) The Enlightenment and the Lisbon Earthquake: documents and video

Barry Lyndon video clip: Seven Years' War

Experience teachers SHARING: Your favorite lesson from the course

Afternoon Session

Focus on the Redesigned DBQ.

GRADING SESSION II 2019 Document-Based Question

SHARING best methods for DBQ preparation

Time permitting: Video: Elizabeth R series with Glenda Jackson

Thursday, July 11

Morning Session

Themes and enrichment materials for Nineteenth Century

Period 3 1815-1914

Resources for teaching the Industrial Revolution.

Unintended consequences of the Industrial Revolution: Selection from Anthony Trollope's Dr. Thorne

Using Music in the European History classroom: resources, brainstorming

Ex: Mozart's opera The Marriage of Figaro

Resources for teaching the French Revolution.

Afternoon Session

GRADING SESSION III: Long Essay Question from 2019 Exam

Using Literature in the History class:

Ex: Romanticism: The Sorrows of Young Werther by Goethe/Victor Hugo

Time permitting: Music: Beethoven's Ninth and video selection from film Immortal Beloved and from The Duelists

Friday, July 12

Morning Session

Using Literature in the History class:

Ex: Romanticism: The Sorrows of Young Werther by Goethe/Victor Hugo

Time permitting: Music: Beethoven's Ninth and video selection from film Immortal Beloved and from The Duelists

Period 4 1914-present

World War I poetry and memoirs: Siegfried Sassoon and Robert Graves

Video clip: The Great War

Resources for teaching Fascism.

Resources for teaching about the Holocaust.

Primo Levi's Survival in Auschwitz

Video clip: Jacob Bronowski at Auschwitz

Resources for teaching WWII

Time permitting: Video: Russia's War: Stalingrad

Afternoon Session

Teaching the post-1989 section of the course: Crisis in Balkans; European Union; the 'new' Europe.

Using current events in class.

Distribute information about Google Drive for sharing resources.

FAREWELL!