Curriculum Module: El arte – ventana y espejo

The Spanish Language and Culture curriculum framework envisions culture as the heart of the course, as students use authentic materials to observe and analyze the products, practices and perspectives of Spanish speakers around the world. This curriculum module guides students and teachers to look at art as a means to discover answers to essential questions about the relationship between art, identity, and culture. Students and teachers will use authentic visual, audio, audiovisual, and written materials to analyze cultural products, practices and perspectives. The learning outcomes for students include the ability to apply the habits of mind developed while analyzing these authentic materials, rather than simply list facts about the particular artists and works.

- Lesson 1: El arte como ventana
- Lesson 2: El arte como espejo
- Summative Assessment

Note: Curriculum module materials reflect important topics in AP courses, and the materials are meant to provide teachers with resources and classroom ideas. However, curriculum module materials should not be taken as an indication that a particular topic will appear on the AP Exam.

This summer institute will address the redesign of the AP Spanish Language and Culture course. We will analyze with detail the new examination, learn how to use the new curriculum framework, address the importance of “culture,” study the modes of communication, and share best practices and techniques for a successful implementation of the new thematic contexts. By the end of the week, participants will gain practical knowledge, instructional strategies, and innovative activities to successfully teach this course, as well as share effective techniques. During this week, we will review goals, curriculum, pacing guides, and methodology. The audit process and creation of syllabi will be analyzed and samples will be provided. Participants will have the opportunity to learn strategies for holistic assessment and develop activities that reflect the integration of modes. Moreover, we will explore hands on ways to incorporate technology and authentic sources into the classroom to improve the integration of skills. We will work with many authentic sources and websites, learn how to develop and use essential questions, and sample various thematic units to increase proficiency. Participants are encouraged to bring a laptop or iPad, current syllabus (if applicable), and a successful class activity to share. This course is intended for both experienced and new teachers.
